Enter the foyer of the Conrad Bali Resort Et Spa in Nusa Dua and feel your stress melt away. Guests are drawn immediately to the balcony overlooking the Indian Ocean and the Hollywood glamour of the resort's 33 metre pool. It's a hard decision ... stay on the balcony and enjoy the cool breeze, sipping welcome cocktails or head to the sun lounges below.

Better still, book into a Deluxe Lagoon suite and literally step off your deck into the lagoon pool which snakes its way through the resort. Honeymooners may prefer to make use of the marble bathroom tubs which are big enough for two, or the room's Balinese day beds for afternoon time out.

The beauty of the Conrad Bali is the size. Masquerading as a 300-room resort, it feels more like an intimate retreat with its secluded landscaped water features. Hospitality reigns as staff greet guests with a smile, tending to their every need. Frangipani scented face towels, Conrad rehydration spray and bottles of chilled water appear from nowhere as guests set up by the pool.

Private beachfront balés – raised platforms piled high with cushions and flowing cotton curtains tied to the four posts – dot the waterfront. Couples could spend the whole day relaxing here enjoying the ocean view, with waiters providing regular sustenance and massage therapists working the muscles. Come sundown and the resort's yoga balé turns into a private dining platform for two, rose petals scattered over the floor, candles lit and Champagne at the ready.

With five award winning restaurants, a day spa with secluded spa pool, a club lounge and concierge there's no need to ever venture through the front gate.

Taste Temptations:

Five restaurants, five different dining experiences – from beachfront Eight South to contemporary Suku, lobby lounge East and poolside Azure. Without doubt the cream of Conrad Bali dining here is Spice Restaurant where Executive Chef, Gary Rosen serves up Middle Eastern and Asian spices with Indian Ocean views. Not to be missed.
